

HEADTEACHER | Mr. Simon Elledge

<https://www.stalbridge.dorset.sch.uk/>

Dear Parents,

As we move towards our final week of term don't forget the egg decorating and egg rolling competitions are next Thursday for those that wish to take part. Hard-boiled eggs only! We will finish the term as usual with a service at St Mary's Church at 2 P.M.

The winners of the house points this term are Red House and they can wear their own clothes (with a splash of Red!) to school next Tuesday.

School Discos are also next week, see poster below for details.

Can I continue to remind all parents of children with mobile phones to check their children's devices regularly, we are again getting bullying happening on devices outside of school which reinforces the age limit for apps that is being ignored.

Have a good weekend,

 Mr Elledge

Bulbs and batteries
Before recycling your electricals, safely remove the batteries or bulbs if you can. Then recycle them separately. If you can't remove, recycle the whole electrical. Search 'recycle your electricals' for all your local drop-off points.
